

SAYS LABOR SHOULD OBEY LANDS AWARD

View of Chairman Donlin of Building Trades Department, A. F. L.

"Abide by the arbitrator's decision." This is the stand of the American Federation of Labor's department of the building trades in the Lands award in Chicago, which reduced wages in more than two score trades of the building industry from 10 to 20 per cent.

Although organized labor feels that the course taken in reducing wages is not a wise one, it is not a wise one in the building trades, and although the stand is that more harm than good will come from the award, Chairman Donlin of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor today in an informal statement pronounced that the course left to be pursued by the trades affected by the decreases in the award of Judge Landis is to abide by the dictum of the referee.

"When a matter is referred to an arbitrator for adjustment there is nothing left to do but stand by whatever decision the referee makes," Mr. Donlin said.

"We feel that the trades should accept the decision, although they may not believe as confidently in the results accruing from such a decision as other parties."

In fact, he says that lowering the standards of living is not a healthy practice to be followed in any branch of industry. Yet this is what is done in the settlement of the dispute. Purchasing power is decreased through decreased wages. We feel that the looked-for stimulation in the building trades will not necessarily follow such a decision.

But upon integrity of parties taking part in an arbitration depends the entire structure of industrial peace. We believe that labor should uphold its reputation for integrity as far as may lie within the human limitations of its power.

Regarding other phases of the decision nothing was said. It is known, however, in labor circles, that the portion decreasing the wages of non-union labor is not available non-union labor should be obtained is viewed with more or less distrust. The labor viewpoint is that an employer will not exert himself to make a thorough search for union labor, even though he holds a contract with labor, if non-union labor may be secured.

COURT ORDERS ALIMONY.

Mrs. Grace Story, Chauffeur's Wife, Charges Cruelty.

Upon complaint of Mrs. Grace Story that her husband, Richard Story, a chauffeur, deserted her and their child two years ago and refused thereafter to provide for them, Justice Hoehling in Equity Court yesterday ordered Story to pay alimony to his wife pending the outcome of the divorce suit brought last week. Mrs. Story charged that her husband was cruel to her and had threatened her life.

The wife recited one instance in which her alleged husband fired at her with a pistol when she went to his home to demand that he support her. She stated that as long as her position at the Department of Agriculture lasted she did not look to her husband for support, but when that terminated, owing to the reduction in forces, she was without funds. Attorney Raymond Neudecker appeared for the wife.

SUES FOR $5,000.

Richard Hartley Seeks Damages From Capital Traction Company.

For alleged personal injury and damage to his automobile Richard Hartley has filed suit in the District Supreme Court to recover $5,000 damages from the Capital Traction Company. Through Attorney Wilton J. Lambert, R. N. Yeatman and M. McArdle the plaintiff says a car of the company collided with his machine July 24 last, on the Calvert Street bridge.

Damages of $25,000 are asked in a suit filed by Lyle E. Gould, a carpenter, against the National Fireproofing Company for alleged personal injury. He says he was working for the company on the range-finding tower at the navy yard, when a ladder, sinking into the ground, caused him to fall and to sustain serious injury. He is represented by Attorney Thomas M. Baker.

DEMOCRATS NOT AIMING TO ATTACK ARMS PARLEY

Publicity Bureau Director Says a Previous Declaration by National Committee Was Misapprehended.

The democratic national committee is not planning an attack upon the Harding limitation of armaments conference to be held here in November, according to the latest article released by Richard Linthicum, director of publicity of the national committee. In a statement made public today Mr. Linthicum said, in part:

"By misapprehending the meaning of a news article sent out under my signature as a part of my regular correspondence to the democratic daily papers, certain papers have sought to characterize it as an attack by the democratic national committee upon the forthcoming disarmament conference. In view of the record of the democratic national committee, the democratic party, democratic senators and congressmen, and democratic leaders everywhere, which has been consistently and persistently in favor of disarmament and world peace, this charge is without justification. The democratic party and its national organization and leadership is as firm for disarmament as ever and is anxious for the success of the forthcoming conference as Mr. Harding and his party. No amount of hysteria nor misunderstanding can change this record or this fact."

MR. HOOVER PREDICTS IMPROVED CONDITIONS

Great Wheat Exports and Advance of Cotton Prices Will Ease Credit Situation.

Improved agricultural and industrial conditions are forecasted by Secretary Hoover as a certain result of unprecedented exports of wheat during August. This movement of wheat, he argues, should particularly ease the credit situation through decreased demands upon the War Finance Corporation for advances. According to his reports wheat exports during the past month amounted to 33,556,000 bushels, or about four times the volume of any pre-war figures for the month of August.

Exports of wheat to Europe have been growing, he added, notwithstanding that the crop in European countries has been above normal, while the crop in this country has fallen below the average this year.

The failure of the potato crop in Europe, he explained, has forced the use of wheat products as a substitute in this country, as a result, has been called upon for additional supplies.

Recent advances in the price of cotton were regarded by Mr. Hoover as promising a betterment of conditions in the south, provided the increased levels are maintained. If the price of cotton stays up, he declared, the south will not need the credit relief which has been sought and which the War Finance Corporation is prepared to give.

$1,000,000 TO AID IRISH.

Amount of Money Raised in This Locality Is Reported.

More than $1,000,000 of the $20,000,000 being raised for the cause of Irish independence in the United States, has been subscribed in the District of Columbia, Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, according to an announcement made yesterday by Jeremiah O'Connor, Raymond Kirkpatrick and Daniel M. Hassett, Washington representatives on the national publicity committees of the organization. Sentiment among Irish sympathizers in the middle western states is aroused against the proposed Finance bill for the funding of the foreign war debts, according to Mr. Kirkpatrick, who returned yesterday to the city after a visit to organization headquarters in Chicago.

At a meeting of the Abraham Lincoln Council of the organization, held at 1731 I street last night, it was voted to hold meetings in the towns of Hyattsville, Upper Marlboro and Rockville, in the near future. A joint meeting of the council with the George Washington Council, will be held next week at 13th and East Capitol streets.
